Episcopal Day School Responsible User Policy

Grades | PK - 4

The faculty, staff and administration at Episcopal Day School believe that access to today's technology and the skills that students will develop in using it are an essential part of both the learning process and student success in the future. These new opportunities also pose many new challenges, and meeting them is the joint responsibility of all members of the EDS community, including faculty/staff, parents, and students. The Responsible User Policy (RUP) helps us to address those challenges.

Please note: All areas of usage described in this agreement apply at all times, not only while I am at school.

I understand that I may responsibly use the EDS internal network and its connection to the Internet. Responsible use is defined by the following guidelines. Should problems or questions arise, I agree to seek help, and if I become aware of any abuses, I agree to contact an appropriate faculty or staff member. I understand that I may be subject to disciplinary action if I do not abide by these guidelines.

1. I will make every effort to make sure the iPad is not damaged or lost.
2. I will tell my teacher or another adult if I see or read something that seems inappropriate or makes me feel uncomfortable.
3. I protect my privacy by not giving out personal information, such as my last name, address, phone number or the name and address of my school without my teacher's permission.
4. I will protect my school accounts and electronic files by not sharing my school account password with other students, and I will not ask other students to tell me their passwords.
5. If and when I take an iPad home, I will follow the same rules at home as I do at school.

I understand that the following are not allowed:

1. sending or displaying unkind or offensive messages or pictures.
2. using social networking sites or apps.
3. streaming music, videos or games unless it is part of a lesson assigned by a teacher.
4. using electronic resources without giving credit to the source of the material.
5. accessing someone else's files without their permission.
6. eating or drinking while using iPads or computers.
7. signing into a personal iCloud/Apple ID on my school device

Note for Parents:

Parents are strongly advised to supervise the use of the Internet at home. Students do not always understand the dangers of sharing personal information on the internet. Students may be subject to disciplinary action for misconduct on school networking sites and other computer related activities.

Student Responsibilities:

- Students must not remove the case from the iPad. This case is specifically designed to protect the device from everyday use and transportation by the student.
- If the student brings the laptop home, it must be brought back to school the next day fully charged. If the iPad is left at home or is not charged, the student remains responsible for completing all coursework.

- The student is responsible for taking care of all school-issued technology components to include: iPad, charging cord, protective case,. All of these items must be turned back in to EDS at the end of the school year.
- Preloaded software/apps may not be deleted.
- If the iPad, case, charger is damaged or lost, the student must notify a teacher immediately. A police report must be provided for any insurance claims resulting from theft.
- All forms of social networking and instant messaging are strictly prohibited during class time unless it is part of the lesson and sanctioned by the teacher.
- Students may not stream music, video, or gaming content during school hours unless it is part of a teacher-issued assignment.
- The use of the camera and microphone are strictly prohibited unless part of a classroom assignment or instruction.
- The whereabouts of the iPad should be known at all times. During school hours when not in the student's possession, the iPad must be stored in the iPad cabinet/cart in the classroom.
- iPads belonging to other students may not be tampered with in any manner.
- If an iPad is found unattended, it should be taken to the nearest faculty member.

For distance learning days, students and caregivers should be aware of these additional expectations:

- Understand EDS Zoom and Google Meet meeting spaces are administered by the School and as such interactions may be recorded and monitored.
- Remember that the School's Responsible Use Policy applies both on and off campus.
- Check email and classroom learning platforms (Seesaw, Google Classroom) regularly.
- Communicate with teachers 1-1 only via approved platforms in Zoom, Google (email, Docs, Google Meet) or SeeSaw.
- Students must sign into video conferencing apps (Zoom, Google Meet, etc) using their own names. No nicknames or false names.
- Treat students and teachers in online learning spaces with the same respect that they should receive in a classroom.
- Arrive promptly, be attentive, and ask for help when needed.
- Parents/Caregivers, report absences to homeroom teachers/advisors promptly.
- Treat online lessons and teacher/student interactions as private. These may not be recorded or posted on social media.
- Allow students to do as much work as possible on their own. Adults should refrain from intervening with a student's work or assessments except to monitor as needed. Some activities, especially in preschool and kindergarten, require adult supervision and participation.

- To the extent that it is possible, use a calm and well-lit place from which to connect to Zoom or GoogleMeet, with a neutral background.
- Turn the camera on for live classes so that teachers can see the student.
- Profile pictures in Zoom, Google, and any other accounts used for school work must be appropriate and may not be of another person.
- Understand that accounts and communication tools provided by EDS (Google platform and SeeSaw) are not for personal use and limit interaction accordingly.

iPads are subject to routine monitoring by teachers, administrators and the technology staff. The EDS technology department will periodically monitor wireless activity. If the responsible use policy is violated, the iPad may be remotely locked down, wiped , and/or confiscated. Students are not allowed to use their personal computing devices in places of the EDS owned device.

All iPads remains the property of Episcopal Day School. All software/ apps, files and documents stored on the iPads are the property of EDS. Electronic communications on the EDS network and on the EDS iPads is not guaranteed to be private. EDS reserves the right to confiscate and search a student's iPads to ensure compliance with the Responsible Use Policy. Students in violation of the Responsible Use Policy may be subject to but not limited to: disciplinary action, overnight confiscation, and/or removal of content. In the event of confiscation, completion of all class work remains the responsibility of the student. EDS is not responsible for financial loss of any personal files that are deleted.

Technology Use Agreement Grades PK-4 Signature Pages

I have read the Responsible User Agreement and agree to follow these rules and guidelines when using technology. All these rules apply while I am a student at Episcopal Day School and are not limited to my being on campus. I will engage in no activity at any time that is in violation of this Responsible User Agreement. All policies related to behavioral conduct expressed in the EDS Student Handbook also apply to the use of the computer network, email and the Internet.

I understand that an individual search of my computer, data and activity records will be conducted if there is reasonable suspicion that I have violated this policy.
